New London 15 15 15 509 Middletown and Silim McIntyre the control of July game which was scheduled the sent in two more runs on a single that slipped between first and second. Duff meanwhile had grounded out. Friel also hit safe, but Monahan made the third out.

Two hits off Meoney in six innings.

Two hits off Mooney in six innings was small sustenance for Charlie Humphrey's league leaders who were folted out of their dream at Sachem park on Friday afternoon when Norwich slapped a defeat onto them by wich slapped a defeat onto them by the score of 2 to 2. But for a poorly handled sacrifice in the fifth it might have been a row of the time-honoresi goose-eggs. Outside of this one mix-up, the Norwich team was playing like hig leaguers, both in the field and on the bases, making the ordinarily fast moving Whalers look like selling platers.

Young Joe Friel called out the calcium effects when he went up a mile after a liner going like a bullet from Foye's bat, speared it with his glove and then waited the ball to Captain Duff in time to double up Loveday. Centerfielder Monahan was right there with the hard catches, and the whole Norwich team was lively as crickets on the bases, stretching everything where there was a a chance. Jimmy Noonan once scored from second by some great sorfitting on an infield out, following McIntyre in, who was running for Mooney.

following McIntyre in, who was running for Mooney.

Captain Burns looked like a candidate for the hospital list in the seventh when he turned in to one of Smith? sudden inshoots. Burns was the first batter to face Smith and the ball took him squarely in th stomach, dropping him like a log. It was several minutes before he was in shape to resume play.

to resume play.

Held up in great form by Grab
Chapdelaine, who used excellent judgment on the New London batters.

Norwich uniform and had the game safely tucked away when he was forcad to retire by twisting his known he d to retire by twisting his knee as he hit first bag after beating out a beauty bunt in the sixth. Smith finished out he game and no hits were secured off him.

One after another the Norwich stickers rolled up the hits on Pitcher Phillips till every one who faced him more than once got at least one safe bingle. Captain Duff started the going oningle. Captain Dall started the going in the second when he lined a pretty one to left. McIntyre's sacrifice and Connor's bad throw from Friel's grounder put Duff on third from which he scored by working the double steal

In the fifth New London escaped a shutout. Captain Burns lined out the first hit for the visitors and Nasher got the signal for a sacrifice. He bunted towards first, drawing both Mooney and Captain Duff after the hall, which Duff gathered up and then threw wiid to Rhylander who was covering the bag. Roger Connor came to the rescue with a two base clout that drove in New London's two runs. Connor reached third on a sacrifice by Bowers but the next two were out. In its half of the same inning Norwich took the lead and was never the last of the last of the lead and was never the last of the lead and was never the last of th In the fifth New London escaped a third out.

Three more runs in the next inning put Norwich still further in the lead. Chap gained two bags on a hit that Sullivan dropped on a difficult running catch. Mooney beat out a bunt but hurt his knee. Noonan also bunted and the throw to the plate was too late to catch Chapdelaine. Shaw fanned, but from second and third both runners scored on a slow one that Rhylander rolled down to Foye on first. Duff's fly ended the inning. Chaptelaine's clean single in the seventh scored Friel, who had got his base on fielder's choice and stolen second. The score:
